From unknown newspaper (3/20/1919) - Source, Florence Hardy Collins

Death of Daniel J. Hare

Kipling, N. C., March 16. - The funeral services of the late Mr. Daniel J. Hare, who passed away at his home in Hector's Creek Township, Harnett County, Friday night, were conducted by Rev. Cad Norris, his pastor. The interment was made in Chalybeate Springs Baptist Church cemetery. A Large Concourse of relatives and friends attended the last sad rites over this good man.

He leaves his wife and one son. Mr. Hare had been a consistent member of the Baptist Church for sixty years. He was about seventy-seven years of age.

Mr. Hare was one of the best men I ever knew; was very industrious; a brave Confederate soldier, having lost one of his arms in the War Between the States.

His wife was an invalid for fifteen or twenty years. I never saw a man and wife more devoted to each other. Mr. Hare was true to his family, to his church, to his neighbors; true to pay his debts. The life he lived showed what the man was.

The wife has lost a good husband, the son a good father, and we all have lost a good neighbor and friend.

Thomas Wood - An Aged Man Passes Away -

The subject of this sketch, Uncle Tom Wood, departed this life Sunday morning about 3 o'clock, July 13, after an illness of several months. He was confined to his bed helpless seven months. Uncle Tom lived to the ripe old age of eighty five years and twenty eight days. He was the son of the late Whitfield Wood, one of twenty one children, ten of whom are living, as follows Elder ????? Wood, Messrs. Moore Wood, Young, William, A.B. and F.P. Wood, Mrs. Nancy Eldridge, Mrs. Frank Parker, Mrs. Aley Parker and Mrs. Rebecca Frazier. He was twice married, first to Pennie Massengill and last to Rebecca Capps, who preceded him to the grave two years.

Uncle Tom received a hope in Christ and joined the Primitive Baptist church several years ago, living a faithful member and always filling his seat whenever convenient as long as he was able, but for the last several years he has been unable to attend.

The funeral service was conducted by Elder Xure Lee, assisted by Elder L.A. Johnson Monday morning, after which the burial took place in the family burying ground at the old home place, where he was raised.

Alex Wood - A.B. Wood Passes Away -

After suffering with spinal and other troubles for three years or more on Thursday night about 8 o'clock, October 27th, Mr. A.B. Wood known as Elic Wood passed to the great unknown. His suffering was unknown tho I saw him several times and he seemed to take it very patiently.

Uncle Elic was the son of the late Whitfield and Betsy Wood one of 20 children all of whom are dead except seven, four boys and three girls. He was born and reared in Johnston county, having lived there I suppose all of his life. He was 69 years of age and twice married, first fortyone years ago to Jane Barefoot unto which union were born 8 children, four children and wife having preceded him to the grave several years four children now living. A few years ago he was again married to Mrs. Mary Cook living peaceably together until at the Lord's appointed time He called him from this world of pain and sorrow, we hope to a better world on high.

Uncle Elic never united with any church, but was a good man. I have never heard any other than he always lived a moral life good in his home and to his neighbors. His life was a good example for his children and all others. The funeral services were conducted by Elder Yancey Moore Friday afternoon after which the lifeless form was conveyed to the tomb in the family burying ground where he now sleeps awaiting the Resurrection morning.

BOURBON IVEY AND HIS FAMILY

Article written by Carrie I. Carter

Bourbon Ivey was born in Johnston County on 22 November 1818 - d. 12 July 1912. He was the son of James Ivey Jr. and Drusilla Beasley Ivey. From records at my disposal I have determined that he was the second of seven children born to these parents. He was not afforded the opportunity of early educational advantages; however, at the age of 21 he was granted his "freedom" by his father to pursue his own life and interests. It was at this point that he started to school.

Very little is known about the activities of Bourbon while he persevered to get his education and his start in life. I do know, however, that he became a schoolteacher, and his handwriting, appearing in the family Bible, is one of the prettiest I have ever seen.

On 31 December 1857 Bourbon Ivey was married to Fannie Martin (b. 18 January 1837), daughter of Abram Martin (b. 12 January 1815 - d. 26 February 1862). To this union was born four sons: John Ivey, b. 20 June 1859 - d 30 December 1904; Henry Ivey, b 24 December 1860 - d 7 April 1862; Wilson Ivey, b 12 March 1866 - d 28 February 1902; and Julius Ivey, b 29 July 1869 - d 26 August 1943.

The 1870 Census shows Bourbon Ivey and his family living in Ingrams Township, near Benson, North Carolina. On 16 February 1874 Bourbon purchased a farm in Wayne County from William A. Grantham consisting of 343 acres. I have no knowledge as to whether the Bourbon Ivey residence already existed on this tract of land, or if he had to build. My father, Julius Ivey, youngest son of Bourbon, said he was about six years old when the family moved to Wayne County.

As fate would have it, on 3 December 1881 Fanny succumbed to the "fever," as it was called in those days, during an epidemic which swept the country and also claimed the lives of two other members of the Martin family. I believe this fever to be what we know as typhoid. Bourbon, feeling the need of a woman in the home, married again within a short time. Ava Evelyn Summerlin on 13 August 1882 became his bride.

Ava remembered quite well, and occasionally told the story of how she lost her red dress to the Yankees. She was a small girl when the Yankees came, and she had a red flannel dress. They took her red dress, tied up one end, filled it with sweet potatoes, and rode off on horseback. She - determined to recover her dress - got a hold on it and pulled. She was scolded by an older member of the family, and told "They'll kill you." So she stood and helplessly watched while the Yankees rode away.

John, the first born of the Ivey sons, spent his entire life on the family farm. Henry, the second son, died at the age of fifteen months.

Wilson was a schoolteacher. He also was stricken with "fever." According to my grandmother (Ava), he had "fever" three years out of four. While he was in declining health he became interested in planting an orchard and grafting fruit trees, and even in my day we reaped the reward of his labors. He was also a lover of flowers, and planted many rose bushes around the yard. Wilson died just before reaching his 36th birthday. John died two years later. Neither of them ever married.

Julius in the early years of his adult life was a carpenter and contractor - later a farmer. On 28 October 1906 he was married to Dona May Rose of Newton Grove, North Carolina (Sampson County). To this marriage was born four children: Fannie Elizabeth, b 30 December 1908; George Bourbon, b 8 December 1910; Annie Rose, b 20 November 1913; and Carrie Alice, b 7 July 1916.

Brothers and sisters of Bourbon were as follows: Stinceon Ivey, Vison Ivey, Vine Allen Ivey, Frusey Ivey, Eliza Ivey and McCallum Ivey.

James Ivey, father of Bourbon, was a soldier in the 4th Regiment of the War of 1812. Under the provisions of an Act approved February 14, 1871, his widow, Drusilla, was placed on the Pension Rolls of the United States, and beginning June 1873 received a monthly pension of $8.00 per month.

In the year 1890 Bourbon Ivey donated three acres of land on which to build Selah Christian Church and provide space for a cemetery. He served on the original Church Board as an Elder. Wilson Ivey was the first Sunday School Superintendent, and Julius was Secretary.

Bourbon Ivey died in 1912 at the ripe old age of 93. He was laid to rest in the Selah Church Cemetery, as was his wife, Ava (d. 25 August 1937), and his three sons. Fanny Martin Ivey and her father, Abram Martin, were buried in what is now a wooded area on the farm of the late Elbert Dunn, located in Johnston County between Cox's Mill and Bentonville.

A peculiarity of Bourbon's was that he would never allow his picture to be made. Consequently, no pictures of him exist.

This information is from the North Carolina BMD Marriages and posted from a Marriage Notice posted by kathy spainhour.

He devised his will on May 20, 1841 mentioning wife Candis who received the home plantation on Buies Creek along with daughtewrs Peneese, Lucrea, Luyza, Vienna and Candis, and sons Eli and Eldridge.

Per Mark Valsame:

Members of the Carter family later left Harnett County and settled near Apex in Wake County, NC. Eli Carter is buried in Apex City Cemetery. His grave states that he was born January 17, 1825, and died May 17, 1893. His wife Edith A. was born October 12, 1830, and died January 10, 1915. Also buried in the same plot is Eli's sister Candice. Her grave says "Candace Carter, w/o John Spence, b. May 25, 1828, d. January 19, 1899."

Notes for Joseph Eldridge Adams:

Attached is Obituary/memorial for Elder Joseph E. Adams (Son of Joseph and Tilitha Adams) as it appeared in the Oct 1, 1924 Zion's Landmark and was written by his sister, Nancy Adams Denning.

Mr. J.D. Gold,
Dear Friend,

I feel impressed to write a few lines in memory of my dear departed brother, Elder J.E. Adams, who passed away the 17th of March, 1924, in his 91st year. It is with much sadness that I attempt to speak a few words of him. He preached his last sermon the second Sunday in March at Benson, N. C. And came home Sunday evening sick with a very heavy cold, which the doctor said was pneumonia. He was not up any more, living only nine days from the time he was taken sick. All was done for him that doctors and trained nurses and relatives and kind friends could do, but his time had come and I believe he was ready and willing to go. He was so quiet and patient, he didn't suffer any pain which is a great consolation to me. He was laid to rest here at the cemetery with a large congregation present.

Four ministers spoke very comforting at the grave. Elder Hall, the pastor of the church here, Elder Turner, Elder Fred Keen and Elder Barnes. He was a very dear and precious brother to me in the spirit as well as in the flesh. He was more like a father to me than a brother, as I was raised after he was grown, being twenty years younger than he. He has been with me so long I miss him more that I can express, but the precious hope that I have for him drives away trouble to some extent, hoping and believing as I do that he is resting in peace with the dear Saviour, that he has held up and preached so many years. His experience of 50 years ago seemed fresh in his mind most all the time.

He leaves to mourn for him, one brother and three sisters, W.H. Adams at the Soldiers home, Mrs W. M. Young, of Durham, Mrs S.R. Wilson and myself of Angier, and a host of relatives and friends. Brethren and sisters in different parts of the states where he had traveled and preached so many years.

I am your friend,
Nancy S. Denning
Angier, N.C.

Notes for Eliza Jane Adams:

The attached obituaries of Liza Jane Adams Dupree appeared in the Zion Landmark - one written by her brother, Joseph E. Adams and one by her husband, Joseph Dupree. (Courtesy of Bily Yeargin)

The subject of this notice, Eliza Jane Adams Dupree, was a dear sister of mine in the flesh, but more dear in that spiritual relation to our dear Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, as I hope she was one of the Lord's poor and precious jewels. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." We sorrow not as those without hope. We believe our dear sister died or fell asleep in Jesus, and blessed are all such.

She possessed a meek and quiet spirit, was a faithful and devoted member of the church and delighted to have the brethren and sisters at her house, and especially the ministering brethren of whom she had a goodly number to stop with her. Many will remember her. We all miss her, but none so much as her dear husband, our brother Joseph Dupree. A good wife is of the Lord. He giveth and taketh away and we should bow in humble submission to his holy will and say blessed be his Holy name forever and ever. He doeth all things well and for the best. May the good Lord comfort the hearts of the bereaved and reconcile us all more and more to his righteous will in all things. In hope

JE ADAMS

It is with a sad and sorrowful heart, that I attempt to write for publication a notice of the death of my dear, kind and loving wife. She was the daughter of Joseph and Tiliatha Adams. She was born Feb. 10th, 1839 and died Nov. 23rd, 1898, making her stay on earth 59 years, 9 months and 13 days. She united with the church at Sandy Grove, Johnston Co. N.C. on Saturday before the 3rd Sunday in April 1888 and was baptized the next day by Elder J.T. Coats. She was a good and faithful member till her death. Her disease was typhoid fever.

We were happily united in marriage the 29th day of March 1865. She was a good, kind and loving wife, a good mother and mother-in-law, was the mother of eleven children, 3 dead, eight living, 6 boys and 2 girls, and seven grandchildren. She left 5 sisters and 2 brothers, a host of brethren, sisters and friends and myself to mourn our loss, but have good reason to believe our loss is her eternal gain. How sad it is to part with dear companions and friends. Oh! How much we miss her, but we all feel that our loss is her gain-desire to be submissive to the Lord's will. She said to me on the Sunday before she died that she was willing for the Lord to take her and dispose of her according to his will. We feel that it was his will to take her to himself and that she is now at rest where there is no more death, no more parting, where all is peace and happiness, there to sing God's praise for ever and ever, where we will see Jesus and be like him, in the prayer of her bereaved husband in hope. Brother Gold and all brethren, pray for me.

Notes for Joseph Dupree:

Obituary courtesy of Billy Yeargin

Appeared in the Zion's Landmark. The Landmark is a publication distributed by the Primitive Baptist Organization. The Obituary was written by Elder Joseph E. Adams who was Eliza Jane's brother.

By request of the wife of Joseph Dupree and his children, I send you the following obituary.

The subject of this notice was born in Johnston County, North Carolina May, 30, 1838, and departed this life January 15, 1905, in the 67th year of his age. He was first married to Eliza Jane Adams, sister of the writer who passed from the scenes of earthly cares and trials some years ago. To this union were born six sons and two daughters, all living and married except two oldest daughters, Nancy Catharine and youngest son Henry Q. Dupree, 21 years old.

Brother Dupree was married the second time in 1901 to sister Sally Johnson, who is still living. He united with the Primitive Baptist church at Sandy Grove, Johnston County, North Carolina Saturday before the third Sunday in June, 1872, of which church he was afterwards appointed Deacon, which office he faithfully filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to the church until 1902, when a difficulty occurred between him and his brother. W. H. Dupree, in regards to a trival matter about their hogs, of which Joseph tried to labor with the brother according to the scriptures but failing to gain him, brought the matter to the church and after much wrangling, the church withdrew from them both after which Joseph made application for restoration making acknowledgments but the church or some of them would not hear, nor forgive him and he suffered a good deal and remained out as long as he lived, but never forsook the church nor the cause he dearly loved-attending the meetings when able. He had been greatly afflicted for many years with cough and lung trouble but suffered patiently til the end came the 3d Sunday evening, 15th of January at 3 p.m. That morning, he shaved himself, changed his clothes but was too feeble to attend the services at Sandy Grove that day. He went out to his dinner and eat as usual, after dinner, wrote a letter and put it in an envelope and his daughter said to him to wait until Quinton, his son came back to back the letter for him and he said he thought he would which were the last words he spoke; sitting in his chair by the fire, his daughter on one side and his wife, Sister Sally, on the other, they heard him make an unusual noise and his daughter looked towards him and saw he was giving away; went behind his chair took hold of him, putting her arms around him and his wife getting to him about the same time, he died in a minute or two without a struggle in his daughters arms. Sister Sally, his wife took some quilts and pillows and they laid him down and his daughter left to carry the news.

He was buried on Tuesday evening after, A great many people were there to witness the last tribute of respect to one whom they esteemed as a husband, father, and friend. The writer made some remarks at the grave and read some appropriate hymns and offered prayer. Thus has passed away from earthly scenes of suffering and afflictions to that upper and better kingdom, one whom I had known well for 30 years as a member and brother beloved and while he had been evil spoken of and hard things said of him, I had unshaken and unbroken confidence, love and fellowship for him as a child of God and that he died in the precious faith of our Lord Jesus Christ. In conclusion, let me say to his dear bereaved and lonely wife and weeping and sorrowing children, weep not as others without hope. May the good Lord bless you with the like precious faith and hope is my prayer.

LANGDON

James Langdon is the founder of the Owen County Langdon family. Where he was born is unknown but family tradition claims he was brought to America by his mother as a baby.

Another possibility, which has never been researched, could place his residence before Johnston County, N.C. in Shenandoah County, VA. In the Johnston County wills, 3 Jan 1800, Wm Messer, dec'd, had as a beneficiary "son in law" James Langdon. Since Langdon was married to Patsy Stevenson, it may be that son-in-law meant step son or some other relationship. In The History of Shenandoah Co. Va., by Wayland, p. 131, one of the trustees of Woodstock in 1761 was Joseph Langdon. The 1785 census of Va, Shenandoah Co. shows a John Messer.

James was a Revolutionary War soldier and died at his son Zacheria's home in Owen Co. Indiana. His first wife had died before he came to Indiana, and his second wife was Catherine Beaman. Whether Beaman was her name from a previous marriage or was her maiden name is not known by me.

James' first wife and the mother of his children was Patsy Stevenson, the daughter of Soloman and Sarah. The Stevenson's came to Johnston Co. N.C. in 1766. His first wife, ? Mathews was the daughter of Hugh Mathews of Isle of Wight Co, VA. Had one child by her. Second wife Sarah ? was the mother of James Langdon's wife Patsy.

Two of James and Patsy's children married Beaman's who were or had been Quakers that had moved to Johnston Co. NC from Northhampton Co. NC, and prior to that, Nancemond Co. VA. This connection brought James Langdon to Montgomery Co. NC with the movement of some Beaman families. Then to Owen Co. Indiana with the migration of 10 or 12 families from Montgomery Co. His son Zacheria was married to Rachel Bolin, of a Montgomery Co. family. Several of her relations apparently also came to Owen Co. The Montgomery Co. N.C. Bolin's claim descent from Pocohontas and John Rolf.

The will of William Messer was devised in Johnston County, North Carolina on January 3, 1800 [no probate date given]. In his will, Messer left wife Elizabeth a mare and a parcel of 14 hogs, as well as all household furniture and a couple of 10 Pound notes. After her death, the same was to fall to "John Messer sun William Messer" [Note: It is not clear from the original will whether this refers to a grandson William Messer or to both sons John and William Messer jointly]. He also left a bequest of 5 Pounds to "son-in-law" James Langdon to be raised out of the estate. Messer made an identical bequest of 5 Pounds for his son William Messer. Daughter Mary Stevens [probably Stevenson] was to receive a legacy of 5 Shillings Sterling. John Messer and James Langdon were appointed executors to the will, which was witnessed by Noel Johnson, Winney (+) Langdon, and Nanny (x) Messer. A note at the bottom of the will crossed out states that "John Messer only Qfd. Exr." [Johnston County, North Carolina Wills, North Carolina State Archives - original only, no recorded copy].

William Messer was deceased prior to February 20, 1800, when John Messer made an inventory of his personal property [Proven May Term, 1800; Johnston County, North Carolina Record of Estates, Volume 3, 1795-1800, p. 303]. More than four years later, the Johnston County Court Minutes of May 31, 1804 contain an entry showing that Elizabeth Messer sued the executor of her husband's estate [i.e. John Messer] for her legacy from the will:

Elizabeth Messer vs. The Exor. of William Messer, Petition for Legacy: Petition taken Pro Confesso. In this Cause it being Satisfactory made appear that the Defendant had been duly Served with a Copy of the Petition & Summon Agreeably to the Requisites of the Act of Assembly. The Court Order and Decree that the Defendant Pay and deliver over to the Petitioner the legacies in the Will as her Petition Sets forth, and the Costs of the Suit. [Johnston County, North Carolina Court Minutes, November 1800-November 1804, p. 221.]

Family tradition handed down through various descendants of son Britton Langdon (b. September 7, 1792, d. before January 29, 1876; md. November 7, 1815, Margaret "Peggy" Carrell, b. Spring, 1793, d. May 24, 1836, d/o James Carrell and Rhoda Stevenson; 2md. August 5, 1836, Winifred H. Jordan, b. about 1815, d. after 1880) of Johnston County, North Carolina state that James Langdon (b. about 1755, d. November, 1835; 1md. September 13, 1778, Patty Stevenson, b. about 1758, d. before 1815, d/o Solomon Stevenson, Sr. and Sarah; 2md. 1815, Catherine Beaman, b. about 1777, d. after. 1860) of Johnston County, North Carolina and Owen County, Indiana was an illegitimate child brought to America by his mother, who was banished from her family for conceiving a child out of wedlock. While this family tradition has never been proven, Langdon does abruptly appear in the records of Johnston County at the time of his marriage in 1778. During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, the use of the term "son-in-law" could suggest its traditional interpretation (i.e. a man who marries one's daughter) or stepson (i.e. the son of one's current spouse by previous marriage). It is felt that the latter interpretation is the correct one. Elizabeth Messer was most likely the second wife of William Messer, this being suggested by the fact that she did not receive her legacy from her husband's executor John Messer until four years after William's death. The fact that James Langdon named one of his eldest daughters Elizabeth (md. Thomas Barber) would further suggest that Elizabeth Messer was possibly James Langdon's mother. Likewise, daughter Sarah Langdon (md. Samuel Beaman) was undoubtedly named for her maternal grandmother Sarah Stevenson [believed by this author to be Sarah (Matthews) McKinny, daughter of Hugh Matthews and Martha Johnson and widow of Gilbert McKinny]. Langdon's younger son Britton appears to have derived his first name from the Stevenson/Stephenson family, as Patty's older brother David Stevenson (ca. 1749-1808; md. Charity Pearson) of Wake County, North Carolina had a son named Britton Stevenson.

Whether James was Elizabeth's legitimate offspring by a previous marriage or an illegitimate child is completely unknown. It is curious that James Langdon's eldest son was named Zachariah, a less common name for that period. It is felt that this name may have some special significance in the origins of James Langdon. Interestingly, the name Zachariah or Zacharias appears in a number of Langdon families living in Cornwall, England in the 1700s.

One researcher whose brother-in-law was a Langdon descendant claimed in conversation with this author that Langdon's mother was Nanny Messer, who witnessed the 1800 will of William Messer. He stated that his brother-in-law had claimed that Nanny Messer was William Messer's sister, and that William Messer "adopted" his nephew James Langdon. Whether this theory is truly based in an actual family tradition or merely some genealogical speculation on that researcher's part is unclear. However, it appears rather unlikely that Nanny Messer was Langdon's mother. The most logical explanation is that Elizabeth was William Messer's second wife, and that she was the mother of James Langdon.

Children of James Langdon and Patty Stevenson are:

- i. Elizabeth "Betsy" Langdon, born Abt. 1782 in Johnston County, North Carolina; married Thomas Barber 05 Apr 1799 in Johnston County, North Carolina.

- ii. Winnifred Langdon, born 1783 in Johnston County, North Carolina; died in Owen County, Indiana; married Jacob Beaman 02 Mar 1800 in Johnston County, North Carolina; born Abt. 1780.

Notes for Winnifred Langdon:

The family moved to Morgan Township, Owen County, Indiana with Jacob's uncle, Francis, in 1823 or 1824.

Winifred, her daughter, Rachel, and daughter-in-law, Catharine, were charter members of the "Little Flock Baptist Church" which was later formally organized as the New Union Baptist Church in November 1842. Jacob BEAMAN died between 1852-1860, possibly in Warren County, Iowa where his son, Jacob L., migrated to in 1852. Winnie lived until at least 1860 when she resided with Jacob L. in Panora, Guthrie County, Iowa.

Notes for Jacob Beaman:

Little Flock Baptist Church was organized in an early day in the northern part of the township. The first meetings were held at the residences of Marady Lucas and Jacob Beaman. Early pastors were John Case and a Rev. Owens. A house of worship was built about the year 1843 and used till 1881. The society was re-organized many years ago and took upon itself the name of New Union Baptist Church, which it still retains. A frame house of worship was erected in the year 1881 on land owned by Mr. Lucas and cost the sum of $1200.00. The organization was in good condition in 1884 with a membership of seventy five.

- iii. Sally Sarah Langdon, born 1786 in Johnston County, North Carolina; died 24 Aug 1866 in Owen County, Indiana; married Samuel Beaman 31 Jul 1811 in Johnston County, North Carolina; born Abt. 1793 in North Carolina; died 22 Mar 1857 in Owen County, Indiana.

Notes for Sally Sarah Langdon:

Sarah "Sary" or "Sally" LANGDON was the daughter of James and Patty (STEVENSON) LANGDON.

Samuel moved his family to Owen County, Indiana in 1823 and 1824 along with his parents, siblings, and some of his cousins. They first settled in Morgan Township where Sary was a charter member of the "Little Flock Baptist Church" which was later formally organized as the New Union Baptist Church in November 1842. Samuel and Samuel Jr. joined the church later.

After Samuel's father's death 1827, the family sold the Morgan Township claim (W/SE/S31/T11N/R4W) to John CARTER in 1829 and resettled in Jackson Township where they lived next to Samuel's brother, Briant.

Samuel also acquired a 40-acre claim in Jennings Township (NE/SE/S9/T11N/R4W) in 1835, as well as another 40-acre claim in Jackson (SE/SW/S5/T11N/R4W) in 1836. The Jennings claim he deeded to his son, Samuel, in February 1840, and the Jackson claim to his son-in-law, George W. HELM, in February 1837. He lived in Jackson through at least 1850 at which time he reported having 20 improved and 20 unimproved acres worth $250. For livestock he reported a horse, milk cow, 8 sheep, and 280 swine.

Samuel BEAMAN died on 22 March 1857 and his wife, Sarah (LANGDON) BEAMAN died 24 August 1866. Both are buried at the New Union Baptist Church cemetery in Morgan Township.

Notes for Samuel Beaman:

History of Morgan Township

OWEN COUNTY

The original boundary was created February 1821 and comprised the entire southwest corner of the county and was presumably named in honor of General Daniel Morgan the victor at the Battle of Cowpens (Jan. 17, 1781). In 1825 it was drastically changed and moved to the northeast, with only six of the original ninety-six sections remaining in the original boundary. In 1837 when La Fayette Township was created, the twelve lower sections were removed and attached to the new township. Morgan Township was not settled as early as some of the townships. Samuel Beaman, and his sons, James, Samuel and Alvin came from North Carolina about the year 1824 with Reuben Jordan whose wife was a cousin of the Beamans. Oliver Cromwell also settled in the Northwest corner of the township and was one of the first pioneers in the northern part of the county.

Two brothers, Moses and John Carter, who were allied with the Beamans in Montgomery Co., N.C. came in 1829. The trip of 700 miles was made in wagons and it took seven weeks. Upon arriving at their destination, they found no house so they improvised a camp of their wagons in which the families lived until a house could be built. With the help of a few neighbors, a cabin of split poplar logs was hastily erected. A partition through the middle of the room divided it into two apartments, each of which was occupied by a family.

The pioneers survived mostly on meat from the game which abounded in the country. Nearly every article of clothing worn by either male or female was manufactured at home by the women on the old-fashioned spinning wheels, cards and looms. The men dressed in homespun jeans and buckskin, out of which were made pantaloons, hunting shirts, moccasins and occasionally dresses for the women. Shoes were made from leather tanned at home. Boots were seldom worn, except by professional men, and no better evidence could be adduced of a man being a preacher, doctor or lawyer than his appearing in public with boots on.

The earliest mill used by the pioneers was the little water mill on Jordan Creek in Jackson Township erected by Oliver Cromwell about 1824. Some of the settlers made their own flour and meal with the old-fashioned mortar, while others used a common grater made of tin which worked as long as the corn was not too dry.

The opportunities for obtaining an education in the early times were scarce and books were limited. A school was organized about 1835 and was in a little pole cabin. It had previously been used as a home by a squatter. After he had abandoned the building, the neighbors fitted it up as a schoolhouse. They furnished it with a few rough puncheon benches and built a large fire place in one end of the room.

The earliest religious services were conducted by the Christian and Baptist Churches. The Regular Baptists held their first service soon after the first settlements were made. The Missionary Baptist church, commonly known as Carolina was organized about 1845. Its cemetery contains the remains of many of the early settlers of the township

Jordan Village was first located about one half mile from its present site, the coming of the railroad gradually caused the village to move to its present location.

Notes for Zachariah Langdon:
Zacharia spent more than half his lifetime in North Carolina. There is a record of a George L. Stephenson and wife selling some property to a Zacharia Langdon in Deed Book 10, page 431, Johnston County, North Carolina. He came to Indiana about 1831, as William Clark Langdon was his first child that was born in Indiana. During his later years, he owned land and lived in the eastern portion of the Southwest quarter of Jackson Township, Indiana where he owned 80 acres. Zacharia, and two of his sisters, were members of the New Union Baptist Church. Zacharia and wife Rachel are thought to be buried at the Carolina Cemetery, Owen County, Indiana, but no markers for those gravesites is evident. Mary "Polly" Langdon, born 1792 in North Carolina; died 03 Nov 1873 in Warren County, Iowa; married (1) Briant Beaman 1810 in Montgomery County, North Carolina; born 1788 in North Carolina; died 03 Jan 1836 in Owen County, Indiana; married (2) Noah Randall 06 Dec 1840 in Owen County, Indiana.

Notes for Mary "Polly" Langdon:

Briant moved his family to Owen County, Indiana in 1823 and 1824 along with his parents, siblings, and some of his cousins. They first settled in Morgan Township and, after his father's death in 1827, resettled in Jackson Township where he lived next to his brother, Samuel.

Briant Beaman died in Owen County on 3 January 1836 (or 1839), probably in either Morgan or Jackson Township.

After Briant's death, Mary (LANGDON) BEAMAN remarried to Noah RANDALL on 6 December 1840 in Owen County. They continued to live in Morgan Township, close by her children, through 1850, but relocated to Warren County, Iowa by 1870 where she lived with her daughter, Catherine (BEAMAN) CLINKENBEARD.

Mary (LANGDON BEAMAN) RANDALL died on 3 November 1873 in either Owen County or Harrison County, Iowa. Her birth year, according to censuses, ranged from as early as 1791 to as late as 1805, but was most likely near 1800 or sooner.

Notes for James Carroll:

From James Mark Valsame:

As I have mentioned before, James Carrell was NOT born in Ireland nor was he an immigrant. He was also NOT the son of (probably fictional) couple Duncan McCarrell and Isabella Dallas. For years, I and other researchers thought that James was the son of William Carrell (d. 1811) of Johnston County, NC and later Columbia County, GA by his first wife Ann. William's 1809 will named both sons James and William. However, research in GA records has revealed that William's sons James and William actually did settle in Columbia County, GA with their father William, and can not be identical with our ancestor James Carrell and his known brother William Carrell (md. Sarah Stephenson, 2md. Piety Fluellin). James' Revolutionary War Pension Application states that he lived in Cumberland (now Harnett) County, NC before the war. There was a James Carrell who died in Cumberland (Harnett) County, NC in 1778. He did not leave a will, but his estate papers show that Abraham Perry was his administrator. Abraham Perry later served as a bondsman when William Carrell married his second wife Piety Fluellin in 1797 in Johnston County. The estate papers of James Carrell do not indicate whether he had a wife or any children. However, Dennis Carrell, a likely brother of James and William, applied for a Revolutionary War Pension in Shelby County, AL. He stated that he was born in 1766 in Wake County (not formed until 1771) and that he had brothers who had also served in the war.

Dennis is the only other Carrell who lived in the area of Pleasant Grove Township in the 1790s period besides James and William. He left Johnston County and migrated to Buncombe County, NC, and then Tennessee and later Shelby County, Alabama. In Buncombe County, NC, there is a deed in 1815 where Dennis Carrell had conveyed land to his step-father Abraham Perry, suggesting that Perry might have married James Carrell (d. 1778)'s widow.

All of the Carrell family descends from John Carrell, who acquired land on Swift Creek in Johnston County as early as 1752. He died sometime in 1762, and in 1763, Elizabeth Johnson, widow of Sill Johnson, assumed guardianship of his minor children. Elizabeth was likely a Carrell herself, possibly John's younger sister or elder daughter. John's orphans were William, John, Lucy, Susannah, and Benjamin. Court records later show that another possible child of John was Absalom, a "base born (i.e. posthumous) child." William apparently came of age right around 1763 as he had a land transaction shortly after being placed under guardianship in 1763. In the 1750s, John Carrell had had a land transaction with James Carrell. James Carrell later was appointed guardian to John's daughter Lucy Carrell. In a later transaction involving James Carrell in Cumberland County, Lucy Carrell served as a witness. This seems to prove that James Carrell moved from Johnston County to Cumberland County.

There are two possibilities. One is that Lucy was a younger sister of James, who became her guardian; or James was a possible relative of John Carrell and married John's daughter Lucy. Either way, it is likely that James Carrell (d. 1778) of Cumberland (Harnett) County was either the son or son-in-law of John Carrell (d. 1762) of Johnston County. Based on the evidence, it seems likely that our ancestor James Carrell (1765-1834) and his brother William and likely brother Dennis were children of James Carrell (d. 1778) of Cumberland County, and that after their father's death, their mother (maybe Lucy or some other woman) married Abraham Perry.

Notes for Rhoda Carroll:
From James Mark Valsame:

Her name was Rhoda Carrell (b. March 16, 1818, d. May 12, 1896). She was the first of three wives of Joseph Matthews (b. January 27, 1809, d. May 14, 1886), son of Lazarus Matthews and Delia Howard. Lazarus was the son of Jacob Matthews and Meady Johnston. Joseph and Rhoda settled in Noxubee County, Mississippi, and became converts to the LDS (Mormon) Church. They migrated to the Mormon settlement in Nauvoo, Illinois, and later went west with Brigham Young's party to the Salt Lake valley in Utah. Joseph Matthews was one of the original scouts who explored the valley with Young's party. As was the Mormon custom in the 19th century, Joseph Matthews had two other wives in addition to Rhoda. Joseph and his family settled in Matthews ville (now Glenbar), Arizona. Rhoda is buried in Pima Cemetery, Graham County, Arizona. Joseph Matthews is buried in Glenbar Cemetery, Graham County, AZ.

Fact 2: Her body was never found.

Note: According to my files, I know of two newspapers which carried brief obituary notices for Delaney Matthews. One is the Raleigh "State Chronicle" (Feb. 23, 1884 and March 1, 1884 editions):

Mrs. Matthews, wife of Reuben Matthews, killed by a cyclone, about February 20, 1884, in Harnett County.

A notice also appeared in the Raleigh "Farmer and Mechanic" (February 27, 1884 edition):

Mrs. Matthews, wife of Reuben Matthews, killed by a cyclone, February 19, 1884, near the Johnston-Harnett county line.

The tornadoes which tore through Johnston and Harnett Counties, NC in February, 1884 caused tremendous damage to many farms, and there were quite a few deaths caused by this event.

Notes for Jonas Denning:

Source - The Heritage of Sampson County, North Carolina, 1784 - 1984
(From GEDCOM of Sheila Smith)

Jonas was born about 1770 along the upper reaches of Falling Creek in Old Dobbs County, where Buck Branch flows into Falling Creek. This area is now Wayne County. The old Denning cemetery still stands near the county line, where Wayne County SR 1101 becomes Sampson County SR 1708. Jonas farmed as well as doing some carpentry and blacksmith work.

In 1811, Jonas and Nancy sold their Wayne Co. land to a Mr. Fellows, and bought more than 200 acres from Aaron Lee, on the north side of Great Coharie, about 1/2 mile from present day Easy Street, in Sampson Co. They kept a record in the bible of the birthdates of their children, and a copy made in 1895 by grandson Bradley Denning is the basis for this report. He died in 1835, and his personal property was sold at auction on June 10, 1836.

LANGDON

James Langdon is the founder of the Owen County Langdon family. Where he was born is unknown but family tradition claims he was brought to America by his mother as a baby.

Another possibility, which has never been researched, could place his residence before Johnston County, N.C. in Shenandoah County, VA. In the Johnston County wills, 3 Jan 1800, Wm Messer, dec'd, had as a beneficiary "son in law" James Langdon. Since Langdon was married to Patsy Stevenson, it may be that son-in-law meant step son or some other relationship. In The History of Shenandoah Co. Va., by Wayland, p. 131, one of the trustees of Woodstock in 1761 was Joseph Langdon. The 1785 census of Va, Shenandoah Co. shows a John Messer.

James was a Revolutionary War soldier and died at his son Zacheria's home in Owen Co. Indiana. His first wife had died before he came to Indiana, and his second wife was Catherine Beaman. Whether Beaman was her name from a previous marriage or was her maiden name is not known by me.

James' first wife and the mother of his children was Patsy Stevenson, the daughter of Soloman and Sarah. The Stevenson's came to Johnston Co. N.C. in 1766. His first wife, ? Mathews was the daughter of Hugh Mathews of Isle of Wight Co, VA. Had one child by her. Second wife Sarah ? was the mother of James Langdon's wife Patsy.

Two of James and Patsy's children married Beaman's who were or had been Quakers that had moved to Johnston Co. NC from Northhampton Co. NC, and prior to that, Nancemond Co. VA. This connection brought James Langdon to Montgomery Co. NC with the movement of some Beaman families. Then to Owen Co. Indiana with the migration of 10 or 12 families from Montgomery Co. His son Zacheria was married to Rachel Bolin, of a Montgomery Co. family. Several of her relations apparently also came to Owen Co. The Montgomery Co. N.C. Bolin's claim descent from Pocohontas and John Rolf.

The will of William Messer was devised in Johnston County, North Carolina on January 3, 1800 [no probate date given]. In his will, Messer left wife Elizabeth a mare and a parcel of 14 hogs, as well as all household furniture and a couple of 10 Pound notes. After her death, the same was to fall to "John Messer sun William Messer" [Note: It is not clear from the original will whether this refers to a grandson William Messer or to both sons John and William Messer jointly]. He also left a bequest of 5 Pounds to "son-in-law" James Langdon to be raised out of the estate. Messer made an identical bequest of 5 Pounds for his son William Messer. Daughter Mary Stevens [probably Stevenson] was to receive a legacy of 5 Shillings Sterling. John Messer and James Langdon were appointed executors to the will, which was witnessed by Noel Johnson, Winney (+) Langdon, and Nanny (x) Messer. A note at the bottom of the will crossed out states that "John Messer only Qfd. Exr." [Johnston County, North Carolina Wills, North Carolina State Archives - original only, no recorded copy].

William Messer was deceased prior to February 20, 1800, when John Messer made an inventory of his personal property [Proven May Term, 1800; Johnston County, North Carolina Record of Estates, Volume 3, 1795-1800, p. 303]. More than four years later, the Johnston County Court Minutes of May 31, 1804 contain an entry showing that Elizabeth Messer sued the executor of her husband's estate [i.e. John Messer] for her legacy from the will:

Elizabeth Messer vs. The Exor. of William Messer, Petition for Legacy: Petition taken Pro Confesso. In this Cause it being Satisfactory made appear that the Defendant had been duly Served with a Copy of the Petition & Summon Agreeably to the Requisites of the Act of Assembly. The Court Order and Decree that the Defendant Pay and deliver over to the Petitioner the legacies in the Will as her Petition Sets forth, and the Costs of the Suit. [Johnston County, North Carolina Court Minutes, November 1800-November 1804, p. 221.]

Family tradition handed down through various descendants of son Britton Langdon (b. September 7, 1792, d. before January 29, 1876; md. November 7, 1815, Margaret "Peggy" Carrell, b. Spring, 1793, d. May 24, 1836, d/o James Carrell and Rhoda Stevenson; 2md. August 5, 1836, Winifred H. Jordan, b. about 1815, d. after 1880) of Johnston County, North Carolina state that James Langdon (b. about 1755, d. November, 1835; 1md. September 13, 1778, Patty Stevenson, b. about 1758, d. before 1815, d/o Solomon Stevenson, Sr. and Sarah; 2md. 1815, Catherine Beaman, b. about 1777, d. after. 1860) of Johnston County, North Carolina and Owen County, Indiana was an illegitimate child brought to America by his mother, who was banished from her family for conceiving a child out of wedlock. While this family tradition has never been proven, Langdon does abruptly appear in the records of Johnston County at the time of his marriage in 1778. During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, the use of the term "son-in-law" could suggest its traditional interpretation (i.e. a man who marries one's daughter) or stepson (i.e. the son of one's current spouse by previous marriage). It is felt that the latter interpretation is the correct one. Elizabeth Messer was most likely the second wife of William Messer, this being suggested by the fact that she did not receive her legacy from her husband's executor John Messer until four years after William's death. The fact that James Langdon named one of his eldest daughters Elizabeth (md. Thomas Barber) would further suggest that Elizabeth Messer was possibly James Langdon's mother. Likewise, daughter Sarah Langdon (md. Samuel Beaman) was undoubtedly named for her maternal grandmother Sarah Stevenson [believed by this author to be Sarah (Matthews) McKinny, daughter of Hugh Matthews and Martha Johnson and widow of Gilbert McKinny]. Langdon's younger son Britton appears to have derived his first name from the Stevenson/Stephenson family, as Patty's older brother David Stevenson (ca. 1749-1808; md. Charity Pearson) of Wake County, North Carolina had a son named Britton Stevenson.

Whether James was Elizabeth's legitimate offspring by a previous marriage or an illegitimate child is completely unknown. It is curious that James Langdon's eldest son was named Zachariah, a less common name for that period. It is felt that this name may have some special significance in the origins of James Langdon. Interestingly, the name Zachariah or Zacharias appears in a number of Langdon families living in Cornwall, England in the 1700s.

One researcher whose brother-in-law was a Langdon descendant claimed in conversation with this author that Langdon's mother was Nanny Messer, who witnessed the 1800 will of William Messer. He stated that his brother-in-law had claimed that Nanny Messer was William Messer's sister, and that William Messer "adopted" his nephew James Langdon. Whether this theory is truly based in an actual family tradition or merely some genealogical speculation on that researcher's part is unclear. However, it appears rather unlikely that Nanny Messer was Langdon's mother. The most logical explanation is that Elizabeth was William Messer's second wife, and that she was the mother of James Langdon.
