Death of Daniel J. Hare

Kipling, N. C., March 16. - The funeral services of the late Mr. Daniel J. Hare, who passed away at his home in Hector's Creek Township, Harnett County, Friday night, were conducted by Rev. Cad Norris, his pastor. The interment was made in Chalybeate Springs Baptist Church cemetery. A Large Concourse of relatives and friends attended the last sad rites over this good man.

He leaves his wife and one son. Mr. Hare had been a consistent member of the Baptist Church for sixty years. He was about seventy-seven years of age.

Mr. Hare was one of the best men I ever knew; was very industrious; a brave Confederate soldier, having lost one of his arms in the War Between the States.

His wife was an invalid for fifteen or twenty years. I never saw a man and wife more devoted to each other. Mr. Hare was true to his family, to his church, to his neighbors; true to pay his debts. The life he lived showed what the man was.

The wife has lost a good husband, the son a good father, and we all have lost a good neighbor and friend.
