LANGDON

James Langdon is the founder of the Owen County Langdon family. Where he was born is unknown but family tradition claims he was brought to America by his mother as a baby.

Another possibility, which has never been researched, could place his residence before Johnston County, N.C. in Shenandoah County, VA. In the Johnston County wills, 3 Jan 1800, Wm Messer, dec'd, had as a beneficiary "son in law" James Langdon. Since Langdon was married to Patsy Stevenson, it may be that son-in-law meant step son or some other relationship. In The History of Shenandoah Co. Va., by Wayland, p. 131, one of the trustees of Woodstock in 1761 was Joseph Langdon. The 1785 census of Va, Shenandoah Co. shows a John Messer.

James was a Revolutionary War soldier and died at his son Zacheria's home in Owen Co. Indiana. His first wife had died before he came to Indiana, and his second wife was Catherine Beaman. Whether Beaman was her name from a previous marriage or was her maiden name is not known by me.

James' first wife and the mother of his children was Patsy Stevenson, the daughter of Soloman and Sarah. The Stevenson's came to Johnston Co. N.C. in 1766. His first wife, ? Mathews was the daughter of Hugh Mathews of Isle of Wight Co, VA. Had one child by her. Second wife Sarah ? was the mother of James Langdon's wife Patsy.

Two of James and Patsy's children married Beaman's who were or had been Quakers that had moved to Johnston Co. NC from Northhampton Co. NC, and prior to that, Nancemond Co. VA. This connection brought James Langdon to Montgomery Co. NC with the movement of some Beaman families. Then to Owen Co. Indiana with the migration of 10 or 12 families from Montgomery Co. His son Zacheria was married to Rachel Bolin, of a Montgomery Co. family. Several of her relations apparently also came to Owen Co. The Montgomery Co. N.C. Bolin's claim descent from Pocohontas and John Rolf.

The will of William Messer was devised in Johnston County, North Carolina on January 3, 1800 [no probate date given]. In his will, Messer left wife Elizabeth a mare and a parcel of 14 hogs, as well as all household furniture and a couple of 10 Pound notes. After her death, the same was to fall to "John Messer sun William Messer" [Note: It is not clear from the original will whether this refers to a grandson William Messer or to both sons John and William Messer jointly]. He also left a bequest of 5 Pounds to "son-in-law" James Langdon to be raised out of the estate. Messer made an identical bequest of 5 Pounds for his son William Messer. Daughter Mary Stevens [probably Stevenson] was to receive a legacy of 5 Shillings Sterling. John Messer and James Langdon were appointed executors to the will, which was witnessed by Noel Johnson, Winney (+) Langdon, and Nanny (x) Messer. A note at the bottom of the will crossed out states that "John Messer only Qfd. Exr." [Johnston County, North Carolina Wills, North Carolina State Archives - original only, no recorded copy].

William Messer was deceased prior to February 20, 1800, when John Messer made an inventory of his personal property [Proven May Term, 1800; Johnston County, North Carolina Record of Estates, Volume 3, 1795-1800, p. 303]. More than four years later, the Johnston County Court Minutes of May 31, 1804 contain an entry showing that Elizabeth Messer sued the executor of her husband's estate [i.e. John Messer] for her legacy from the will:

Elizabeth Messer vs. The Exor. of William Messer, Petition for Legacy: Petition taken Pro Confesso. In this Cause it being Satisfactory made appear that the Defendant had been duly Served with a Copy of the Petition & Summon Agreeably to the Requisites of the Act of Assembly. The Court Order and Decree that the Defendant Pay and deliver over to the Petitioner the legacies in the Will as her Petition Sets forth, and the Costs of the Suit. [Johnston County, North Carolina Court Minutes, November 1800-November 1804, p. 221.]

Family tradition handed down through various descendants of son Britton Langdon (b. September 7, 1792, d. before January 29, 1876; md. November 7, 1815, Margaret "Peggy" Carrell, b. Spring, 1793, d. May 24, 1836, d/o James Carrell and Rhoda Stevenson; 2md. August 5, 1836, Winifred H. Jordan, b. about 1815, d. after 1880) of Johnston County, North Carolina state that James Langdon (b. about 1755, d. November, 1835; 1md. September 13, 1778, Patty Stevenson, b. about 1758, d. before 1815, d/o Solomon Stevenson, Sr. and Sarah; 2md. 1815, Catherine Beaman, b. about 1777, d. after. 1860) of Johnston County, North Carolina and Owen County, Indiana was an illegitimate child brought to America by his mother, who was banished from her family for conceiving a child out of wedlock. While this family tradition has never been proven, Langdon does abruptly appear in the records of Johnston County at the time of his marriage in 1778. During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries, the use of the term "son-in-law" could suggest its traditional interpretation (i.e. a man who marries one's daughter) or stepson (i.e. the son of one's current spouse by previous marriage). It is felt that the latter interpretation is the correct one. Elizabeth Messer was most likely the second wife of William Messer, this being suggested by the fact that she did not receive her legacy from her husband's executor John Messer until four years after William's death. The fact that James Langdon named one of his eldest daughters Elizabeth (md. Thomas Barber) would further suggest that Elizabeth Messer was possibly James Langdon's mother. Likewise, daughter Sarah Langdon (md. Samuel Beaman) was undoubtedly named for her maternal grandmother Sarah Stevenson [believed by this author to be Sarah (Matthews) McKinny, daughter of Hugh Matthews and Martha Johnson and widow of Gilbert McKinny]. Langdon's younger son Britton appears to have derived his first name from the Stevenson/Stephenson family, as Patty's older brother David Stevenson (ca. 1749-1808; md.

Charity Pearson) of Wake County, North Carolina had a son named Britton Stevenson.

Whether James was Elizabeth's legitimate offspring by a previous marriage or an illegitimate child is completely unknown. It is curious that James Langdon's eldest son was named Zachariah, a less common name for that period. It is felt that this name may have some special significance in the origins of James Langdon. Interestingly, the name Zachariah or Zacharias appears in a number of Langdon families living in Cornwall, England in the 1700s.

One researcher whose brother-in-law was a Langdon descendant claimed in conversation with this author that Langdon's mother was Nanny Messer, who witnessed the 1800 will of William Messer. He stated that his brother-in-law had claimed that Nanny Messer was William Messer's sister, and that William Messer "adopted" his nephew James Langdon. Whether this theory is truly based in an actual family tradition or merely some genealogical speculation on that researcher's part is unclear. However, it appears rather unlikely that Nanny Messer was Langdon's mother. The most logical explanation is that Elizabeth was William Messer's second wife, and that she was the mother of James Langdon.

Notes for JAMES CARROLL:

From James Mark Valsame:

As I have mentioned before, James Carrell was NOT born in Ireland nor was he an immigrant. He was also NOT the son of (probably fictional) couple Duncan McCarrell and Isabella Dallas. For years, I and other researchers thought that James was the son of William Carrell (d. 1811) of Johnston County, NC and later Columbia County, GA by his first wife Ann. William's 1809 will named both sons James and William. However, research in GA records has revealed that William's sons James and William actually did settle in Columbia County, GA with their father William, and can not be identical with our ancestor James Carrell and his known brother William Carrell (md. Sarah Stephenson, 2md. Piety Fluellin). James' Revolutionary War Pension Application states that he lived in Cumberland (now Harnett) County, NC before the war. There was a James Carrell who died in Cumberland (Harnett) County, NC in 1778. He did not leave a will, but his estate papers show that Abraham Perry was his administrator. Abraham Perry later served as a bondsman when William Carrell married his second wife Piety Fluellin in 1797 in Johnston County. The estate papers of James Carrell do not indicate whether he had a wife or any children. However, Dennis Carrell, a likely brother of James and William, applied for a Revolutionary War Pension in Shelby County, AL. He stated that he was born in 1766 in Wake County (not formed until 1771) and that he had brothers who had also served in the war.

Dennis is the only other Carrell who lived in the area of Pleasant Grove Township in the 1790s period besides James and William. He left Johnston County and migrated to Buncombe County, NC, and then Tennessee and later Shelby County, Alabama. In Buncombe County, NC, there is a deed in 1815 where Dennis Carrell had conveyed land to his step-father Abraham Perry, suggesting that Perry might have married James Carrell (d. 1778)'s widow.

All of the Carrell family descends from John Carrell, who acquired land on Swift Creek in Johnston County as early as 1752. He died sometime in 1762, and in 1763, Elizabeth Johnson, widow of Sill Johnson, assumed guardianship of his minor children. Elizabeth was likely a Carrell herself, possibly John's younger sister or elder daughter. John's orphans were William, John, Lucy, Susannah, and Benjamin. Court records later show that another possible child of John was Absalom, a "base born (i.e. posthumous) child." William apparently came of age right around 1763 as he had a land transaction shortly after being placed under guardianship in 1763. In the 1750s, John Carrell had had a land transaction with James Carrell. James Carrell later was appointed guardian to John's daughter Lucy Carrell. In a later transaction involving James Carrell in Cumberland County, Lucy Carrell served as a witness. This seems to prove that James Carrell moved from Johnston County to Cumberland County. There are two possibilities. One is that Lucy was a younger sister of James, who became her guardian; or James was a possible relative of John Carrell and married John's daughter Lucy. Either way, it is likely that James Carrell (d. 1778) of Cumberland (Harnett) County was either the son or son-in-law of John Carrell (d. 1762) of Johnston County. Based on the evidence, it seems likely that our ancestor James Carrell (1765-1834) and his brother William and likely brother Dennis were children of James Carrell (d. 1778) of Cumberland County, and that after their father's death, their mother (maybe Lucy or some other woman) married Abraham Perry.

They migrated to the Mormon settlement in Nauvoo, Illinois, and later went west with Brigham Young's party to the Salt Lake valley in Utah. The family moved to Morgan Township, Owen County, Indiana with Jacob's uncle, Francis, in 1823 or 1824.

Winifred, her daughter, Rachel, and daughter-in-law, Catharine, were charter members of the "Little Flock Baptist Church" which was later formally organized as the New Union Baptist Church in November 1842. Jacob BEAMAN died between 1852-1860, possibly in Warren County, Iowa where his son, Jacob L., migrated to in 1852. Winnie lived until at least 1860 when she resided with Jacob L. in Panora, Guthrie County, Iowa.

Notes for JACOB BEAMAN:

Little Flock Baptist Church was organized in an early day in the northern part of the township. The first meetings were held at the residences of Marady Lucas and Jacob Beaman. Early pastors were John Case and a Rev. Owens. A house of worship was built about the year 1843 and used till 1881. The society was re-organized many years ago and took upon itself the name of New Union Baptist Church, which it still retains. A frame house of worship was erected in the year 1881 on land owned by Mr. Lucas and cost the sum of $1200.00. The organization was in good condition in 1884 with a membership of seventy five.

Notes for SALLY SARAH LANGDON:

Sarah "Sary" or "Sally" LANGDON was the daughter of James and Patty (STEVENSON) LANGDON.

Samuel moved his family to Owen County, Indiana in 1823 and 1824 along with his parents, siblings, and some of his cousins. They first settled in Morgan Township where Sary was a charter member of the "Little Flock Baptist Church" which was later formally organized as the New Union Baptist Church in November 1842. Samuel and Samuel Jr. joined the church later.

After Samuel's father's death 1827, the family sold the Morgan Township claim (W/SE/S31/T11N/R4W) to John CARTER in 1829 and resettled in Jackson Township where they lived next to Samuel's brother, Briant.

Samuel also acquired a 40-acre claim in Jennings Township (NE/SE/S9/T11N/R4W) in 1835, as well as another 40-acre claim in Jackson (SE/SW/S5/T11N/R4W) in 1836. The Jennings claim he deeded to his son, Samuel, in February 1840, and the Jackson claim to his son-in-law, George W. HELM, in February 1837. He lived in Jackson through at least 1850 at which time he reported having 20 improved and 20 unimproved acres worth $250. For livestock he reported a horse, milk cow, 8 sheep, and 280 swine.

Samuel BEAMAN died on 22 March 1857 and his wife, Sarah (LANGDON) BEAMAN died 24 August 1866. Both are buried at the New Union Baptist Church cemetery in Morgan Township.

Notes for SAMUEL BEAMAN:
History of Morgan Township
OWEN COUNTY

The original boundary was created February 1821 and comprised the entire southwest corner of the county and was presumably named in honor of General Daniel Morgan the victor at the Battle of Cowpens (Jan. 17, 1781). In 1825 it was drastically changed and moved to the northeast, with only six of the original ninety-six sections remaining in the original boundary. In 1837 when La Fayette Township was created, the twelve lower sections were removed and attached to the new township. Morgan Township was not settled as early as some of the townships. Samuel Beaman, and his sons, James, Samuel and Alvin came from North Carolina about the year 1824 with Reuben Jordan whose wife was a cousin of the Beamans. Oliver Cromwell also settled in the Northwest corner of the township and was one of the first pioneers in the northern part of the county.

Two brothers, Moses and John Carter, who were allied with the Beamans in Montgomery Co., N.C. came in 1829. The trip of 700 miles was made in wagons and it took seven weeks. Upon arriving at their destination, they found no house so they improvised a camp of their wagons in which the families lived until a house could be built. With the help of a few neighbors, a cabin of split poplar logs was hastily erected. A partition through the middle of the room divided it into two apartments, each of which was occupied by a family.

The pioneers survived mostly on meat from the game which abounded in the country. Nearly every article of clothing worn by either male or female was manufactured at home by the women on the old-fashioned spinning wheels, cards and looms. The men dressed in homespun jeans and buckskin, out of which were made pantaloons, hunting shirts, moccasins and occasionally dresses for the women. Shoes were made from leather tanned at home. Boots were seldom worn, except by professional men, and no better evidence could be adduced of a man being a preacher, doctor or lawyer than his appearing in public with boots on.

The earliest mill used by the pioneers was the little water mill on Jordan Creek in Jackson Township erected by Oliver Cromwell about 1824. Some of the settlers made their own flour and meal with the old-fashioned mortar, while others used a common grater made of tin which worked as long as the corn was not too dry.

The opportunities for obtaining an education in the early times were scarce and books were limited. A school was organized about 1835 and was in a little pole cabin. It had previously been used as a home by a squatter. After he had abandoned the building, the neighbors fitted it up as a schoolhouse. They furnished it with a few rough puncheon benches and built a large fire place in one end of the room.

The earliest religious services were conducted by the Christian and Baptist Churches. The Regular Baptists held thier first service soon after the first settlements were made. The Missionary Baptist church, commonly known as Carolina was organized about 1845. Its cemetery contains the remains of many of the early settlers of the township

Jordan Village was first located about one half mile from its present site, the coming of the railroad gradually caused the village to move to its present location.

JOHN<sup>1</sup>) was born Abt. 1789 in Johnston County, North Carolina, and died 18 Feb 1861 in Owen County, Indiana. He married RACHEL BOLIN. She was born 1791 in North Carolina, and died 14 Sep 1868 in Owen County, Indiana.

Notes for ZACHARIAH LANGDON:

Zacheria spent more than half his lifetime in North Carolina. There is a record of a George L. Stephenson and wife selling some property to a Zacheria Langdon in Deed Book 10, page 431, Johnston County, North Carolina. He came to Indiana about 1831, as William Clark Langdon was his first child that was born in Indiana. During his later years, he owned land and lived in the eastern portion of the Southwest quarter of Jackson Township, Indiana where he owned 80 acres. Zacheria, and two of his sisters, were members of the New Union Baptist Church. Zacheria and wife Rachel are thought to be buried at the Carolina Cemetery, Owen County, Indiana, but no markers for those gravesites is evident. Notes for MARY "POLLY" LANGDON:

Briant moved his family to Owen County, Indiana in 1823 and 1824 along with his parents, siblings, and some of his cousins. They first settled in Morgan Township and, after his father's death in 1827, resettled in Jackson Township where he lived next to his brother, Samuel.

Briant Beaman died in Owen County on 3 January 1836 (or 1839), probably in either Morgan or Jackson Township.

After Briant's death, Mary (LANGDON) BEAMAN remarried to Noah RANDALL on 6 December 1840 in Owen County. They continued to live in Morgan Township, close by her children, through 1850, but relocated to Warren County, Iowa by 1870 where she lived with her daughter, Catherine (BEAMAN) CLINKENBEARD.

Mary (LANGDON BEAMAN) RANDALL died on 3 November 1873 in either Owen County or Harrison County, Iowa. Her birth year, according to censuses, ranged from as early as 1791 to as late as 1805, but was most likely near 1800 or sooner.

Notes for JOSEPH ELDRIDGE ADAMS:

Attached is Obituary/memorial for Elder Joseph E. Adams (Son of Joseph and Tilitha Adams) as it appeared in the Oct 1, 1924 Zion's Landmark and was written by his sister, Nancy Adams Denning.

Mr. J.D. Gold,
Dear Friend,

I feel impressed to write a few lines in memory of my dear departed brother, Elder J.E. Adams, who passed away the 17th of March, 1924, in his 91st year. It is with much sadness that I attempt to speak a few words of him. He preached his last sermon the second Sunday in March at Benson, N. C. And came home Sunday evening sick with a very heavy cold, which the doctor said was pneumonia. He was not up any more, living only nine days from the time he was taken sick. All was done for him that doctors and trained nurses and relatives and kind friends could do, but his time had come and I believe he was ready and willing to go. He was so quiet and patient, he didn't suffer any pain which is a great consolation to me. He was laid to rest here at the cemetery with a large congregation present.

Four ministers spoke very comforting at the grave. Elder Hall, the pastor of the church here, Elder Turner, Elder Fred Keen and Elder Barnes. He was a very dear and precious brother to me in the spirit as well as in the flesh. He was more like a father to me than a brother, as I was raised after he was grown, being twenty years younger than he. He has been with me so long I miss him more that I can express, but the precious hope that I have for him drives away trouble to some extent, hoping and believing as I do that he is resting in peace with the dear Saviour, that he has held up and preached so many years. His experience of 50 years ago seemed fresh in his mind most all the time.

He leaves to mourn for him, one brother and three sisters, W.H. Adams at the Soldiers home, Mrs W. M. Young, of Durham, Mrs S.R. Wilson and myself of Angier, and a host of relatives and friends. Brethren and sisters in different parts of the states where he had traveled and preached so many years.

I am your friend,
Nancy S. Denning
Angier, N.C.

Cemetery Directions: From Angier turn east on Hwy #210 and go 7.6 miles to a cotton field on your right. There is a driveway. Drive in about 100 ft. to the remains of a family cemetery. town of Coats was named for this family.

Of the 6 people thought to be buried here, only 2 headstones remain. The ruins of an Antebellum farmhouse sit another 100 feet back and all are surrounded by cotton fields. The nearby town of Coats was named for this family.

I walked and recorded this cemetery on Feb 07, 2003.

E-Mail from Pat Grissett dated 7/20/2004

Hey, got the email with the census (1900)-- Yes I do think it is our Lucy (Allen's daughter).. for a couple of reasons.

First, my 1st cousin (once removed) did extensive research on Allen's family quite some time ago and had some family data to help.. she found the date of Lucy and William Wilson's marriage and it was at the home of Allen and Jenetta Stephenson. Also, I found them (Lucy and William Wilson) in 1910 and 1920 in Clayton, Johnston Co. The census for 1910 that I found them on is for "Lower" Clayton, Image 26. The one for 1920 is Image 32. The ages for Lucy on the census records for 1900, 1910, 1920 do not gel.. (apparently someone didn't know how old she was and was just throwing out ages)..

On the 1900 census she is: 39

On the 1910 census she is: 50

On the 1920 census she is: 62

(quite a difference)

William's age has been pretty much consistent, as have the stepson, Lonnie and the other children. Lucy's is the one that jumps all over the place.

About Lonnie A. Stephenson (stepson).. maybe she was married before (to another Stephenson) OR maybe she was an unwed mother.

However, I do believe it is Lucy the daughter of Allen Stephenson. I will try and get in touch with my cousin and find out exactly what her documentation was for the marriage.

Pat

Notes for JAMES BEAMAN:
JENNINGS TOWNSHIP HISTORY

The section of Owen county known as Jennings township was organized as a district division in the year 1842 and originally formed a part of the township of Jackson. It lies in the northern part of the county and its boundaries are: Putnam county on the north, Taylor township on the east, Montgomery and Morgan twps on the south and finally Jackson township on the west. The township was named after T.C. Jennings, a man who took an active part in its organization. The original outline has been modified at different times. In 1852, its boundaries were enlarged by the addition of a part of Morgan township and in September of 1861 it was readjusted to its present twenty one square miles. The surface of the township except for the northeastern part is hilly and broken and has much wild scenery.

The most broken portions are along the Eel River and in the central and southern portions where the soil rests upon a bed of sandstone. Building stone of fine quality is found upon almost any farm in the township. An inexhaustible supply of block coal underlies the township and is easily accessible. Several mines have been developed for neighborhood purposes, the largest being on the farm of James Beaman. The principal occupation is stockraising.

The first land entry made in Jennings township was in the year 1816 by C & F Bullett who were speculators and obtained patents for 611 acres in the township. The same year entries were made by I. Lindsey and Fetter and Hughes in section 36. The first permanent settler appears to have been Isaac Teel who located near the lower falls of the Eel River and erected a small mill as early as 1820. One year later he entered land in section 26 and died a short time after this. His widow later married a man named Acres, another early settlers in the same area.

Settlements were made in the northern part of the township in an early day by William and Owen Martin, the latter becoming one of the leading citizens of the community. Pioneers came in rather slowly due to the broken conditions, the country provided little inducements.

In 1833, entries were made by William Goff and Amasa Tabor, the latter a native of Kentucky and a prominent member of the Baptist Church. Later came John Black, Matthew Spangler, John Allee, William Allee, William Branham and George Rogers, all who had homes there by 1836. The following year the population was increased by the arrival of Jonathan Branham, Alvin Beaman, James Beaman, Thomas Helm, W.P. Cook, Arabian Davis, Wyatt Cook and others. There were others who made land entries there but were not identified as residents of the township: James Dill, William Lafuse, Wesley Jones, Jane Aldridge, J.P. Sinclair, Benjamin P. Evans, John Gillaspay, G.W. Leach, James Townsend, Henry Ernhart, Josiah Williams and D.G. Martin and Perry Branham.

The earliest improvements of any note were the little corn mill erected by Issac Teel at the lower falls of Eel River. This was a small log building situated on the edge of a cliff; it ground both corn and wheat and did a good business for about ten years.

T.C. Jennings operated the second mill located at the Upper Falls of Eel River. Mr Jennings being public spirited planned several other ventures connected with the mill, however, none of them were successful. This mill was passed through several different hands through the years, those being: Clune & Co, Messers. Foster and Fullerton, Messers. Steiner and Wallace and a Mr. Taylor.

In an early day, James Townsend of Putnam County and founder of the village of Putnamville, conceived the idea of erecting a large factory at the lower falls and spent much money cutting a raceway through the sold rocks there. The project was abandoned eventually leaving Mr Townsend almost bankrupt. He also spent much time in mining salt and lead from the bluffs of the river, this also proving futile.

Matthias Spangler and James Beaman were the first to erect frame houses in the township. Owen Martin and John Black built frame residences in an early day also. On the farm of James Beaman is one of the earliest orchards.

The first burial place in the township was near the lower falls of Eel River where Issac Teel was laid to rest about 1821 or 1822. Several others were buried there also, however, the land was later abandoned and no sign of a grave exists now.

A cemetery was laid off about near the upper falls many years later. Among the first to rest there is the son of T.C. Jennings, Lewis Hill, Mahala Maze and a man named Willis.

The Cataract Graveyard was laid off about the year 1870-1871 on land purchased from T.C. Jennings. The first interment here was Theodosia Beaman, daughter of Samuel; the second was Jane Haltom, daughter of James.

The first marriage in Jennings township was solemnized about the year 1824 between Mrs. Teel, widow of Isaac and Joseph Acres; Samuel Beaman and Lucinda Rogers were also married in an early day.

Among the earliest births in the township was Calvin, son of James and Lydia Beaman in the year 1832. Two others were also Alvin Beaman, son of Samuel, and Silas R, son of Jephtha and Margaret Meek.

SCHOOLS

It is difficult to designate the exact time or place where the first school in this township was taught as opinions vary greatly. It is known however, that a certain Billy Strong taught a term on the place where James Beaman lived as early as the year 1836. The house which Strong "wielded the birch" was a rude log affair, erected by a few neighbors and was used for only a short period of time.

E. Hawkins was a pedagogue at the same place. An early house was erected for school and church purposes and stood a short distance from Cataract with the high sounding name of "Buckskin". It was also built by neighbors, each one giving what he could towards the building, some giving money, others giving items to be sold for money. Among the latter was a "buckskin" given by Arthur Cummings, a fact which gave the house its name. Other houses were erected from time to time in various parts of the township, but for many years the schools were of inferior grade and not very well patronized. After the public school system was adopted, the cause of education received new impetus and better buildings replaced the simple log structures. In 1884 there were six schoolhouses being taught from four to six months in the year, bringing the advantages of common education with easy reach of all.

VILLAGES

Fallsboro--This paper city was laid out in the year 1830 by Rose and Acres in Section 26, township 12 north and Range 4 west and received its name from the falls of the Eel River. The plat shows thirty five lots each 66x99 feet in size and four streets; Main, Jackson, Van Buren and Washington. The first of which was 60 feet and the others were 30 feet each. The town was platted for the purposes of speculation, but the proprietors never realized their anticipated fortune and disposed of the site.

Cataract--This village takes its name from the fall of the river and was once the milling and mercantile center for a large area of the country before the days of the railway. It is located in Section 2, Township 11 north and range 4 west and dates its history from December of 1851, at which time the plat was surveyed and placed upon record. The original survey consisted of fourteen lots, but since then two additions have been made by T.C. Jennings on the first of March 1860 and the second on the second of September 1863.

The large flouring and saw mill of T.C. Jennings early gave the place considerable importance and induced many persons to secure lots and settle in the village. A carding machine was one of the first industries of the place operated by Mr. Jennings in connection with the other mills and a store was brought to the village soon after it was laid out. The mills were all operated on an extensive scale, Gosport and Greencastle being the principal markets for lumber, while flour was hauled to Louisville and other distant points. One of the first buildings in the village was erected for a business house by A.M. Bullett, it was occupied in an early day by Clune & Co. of Cincinnati who stocked it with miscellaneous merchandise. They were in business about ten years. Other merchants who sold goods were: Creech & Campbell, A.M. Hodge, Jack Lewis, L.T. Gose and T. D. Stillwell. There was also a drug store, and a wagon and blacksmith shop.

The following medical men have practiced in the village: W. V. Wiles, Dr. Cole, J.B. Grimes, Dr. Hamrick, J.M. Jones, William Nichols, William Hickson, B. F. Spellbring and Dr. Brasier, George McNutt and J.H. Medaris.

WILLIAM C. LANGDON, farmer and stock raiser, was born in Owen County, October 3, 1832, and is the eighth child born to Zachariah and Rachel (Bolin) Langdon, both natives of North Carolina and of English extraction. William was reared a farmer and received a common school education. He began teaching at the age of eighteen, and followed that vocation for several years, remaining with his parents until of age, and tilling the soil when not engaged in teaching. He never received any help in the way of a start in life, but has at present a farm of 223 acres, with most of the modern accessories, and all earned through his shrewd management. His first marriage was to Ellen A. Haltom, in March 1853; to this union were born four children-- Henry L, Mary J, William I, and an infant unnamed. He was next married, January 1, 1861, to Miss Martha A. Sipple, who bore him eight children--Charlotte H, Julia A, Cornelia A, James C, Lewis B, Joseph E, Naomi F, and Savannah E. His third marriage was to Mrs. Mary (Corbit) Mustard, October 3, 1882; one child, Robert M., is the fruit of this union. Mr and Mrs Langdon are members of the Baptist Missionary Church and in politics he is a Democrat. He has served as Township Assessor twelve years, and under the old law, when there were three Trustees, he filled the office of Clerk for three years. He is an energetic, well to do farmer and popular gentleman.

A sadness was cast over our community last Thursday when the news came that Mr. Young Stephenson was dead. Mr. Stephenson visited his son, B. I. Stephenson and on his way home he went by a small pond of water. His mind being unbalanced he decided that he had lived long enough so he walked in the pond a short distance and lay down (the water was not deep) and drowned himself. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn their loss.

Aged Man Goes to His Reward

Funeral of Mr. Israel Stephenson Held at Primitive Baptist Church Here Friday

One of Johnston County's oldest men passed away Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, when Mr. Israel Stephenson died at his home near here after a long illness. Mr. Stephenson had been in feeble health for several years and was confined to his bed for three weeks before his death. If he had lived until April 2, he would have been eighty years old.

Mr. Stephenson was born in Pleasant Grove Township in 1847. At the age of sixteen he volunteered and served his country faithfully during the last fifteen months of the Civil War. When the war was over he returned to Johnston County and settled on a farm. About forty years ago he united with the Primitive Baptist church at Rehobeth and remained a faithful member there until he moved to this township, moving his membership to the Primitive Baptist church here.

The deceased was twice married, the first time to Miss Emily Coats, of Pleasant Grove. Eleven children were born to this union, four of whom survive: Messrs. D. T. Stephenson, J. O. Stephenson, J. H. Stephenson, and Israel Stephenson, Jr., all of Smithfield township. His second wife was Miss Eliza Pittman, who, with one daughter, Mrs. Alonzo Lassiter, of Elevation, survives him.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at the Primitive Baptist church here, conducted by his pastor, Elder Jesse Barnes, assisted by Rev. D. C. Johnson, a lifelong friend and neighbor. The pall bearers were the four sons of the deceased and two sons-in-laws, John Hamilton and Arthur Johnson. Interment was made in the city cemetery. A large crowd attended the funeral and burial.

Notes for ELIZA JANE ADAMS:

The attached obituaries of Liza Jane Adams Dupree appeared in the Zion Landmark - one written by her brother, Joseph E. Adams and one by her husband, Joseph Dupree. (Courtesy of Bily Yeargin)

The subject of this notice, Eliza Jane Adams Dupree, was a dear sister of mine in the flesh, but more dear in that spiritual relation to our dear Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, as I hope she was one of the Lord's poor and precious jewels. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints." We sorrow not as those without hope. We believe our dear sister died or fell asleep in Jesus, and blessed are all such.

She possessed a meek and quiet spirit, was a faithful and devoted member of the church and delighted to have the brethren and sisters at her house, and especially the ministering brethren of whom she had a goodly number to stop with her. Many will remember her. We all miss her, but none so much as her dear husband, our brother Joseph Dupree. A good wife is of the Lord. He giveth and taketh away and we should bow in humble submission to his holy will and say blessed be his Holy name forever and ever. He doeth all things well and for the best. May the good Lord comfort the hearts of the bereaved and reconcile us all more and more to his righteous will in all things. In hope

JE ADAMS

It is with a sad and sorrowful heart, that I attempt to write for publication a notice of the death of my dear, kind and loving wife. She was the daughter of Joseph and Tiliatha Adams. She was born Feb. 10th, 1839 and died Nov. 23rd, 1898, making her stay on earth 59 years, 9 months and 13 days. She united with the church at Sandy Grove, Johnston Co. N.C. on Saturday before the 3rd Sunday in April 1888 and was baptized the next day by Elder J.T. Coats. She was a good and faithful member till her death. Her disease was typhoid fever.

We were happily united in marriage the 29th day of March 1865. She was a good, kind and loving wife, a good mother and mother-in-law, was the mother of eleven children, 3 dead, eight living, 6 boys and 2 girls, and seven grandchildren. She left 5 sisters and 2 brothers, a host of brethren, sisters and friends and myself to mourn our loss, but have good reason to believe our loss is her eternal gain. How sad it is to part with dear companions and friends. Oh! How much we miss her, but we all feel that our loss is her gain-desire to be submissive to the Lord's will. She said to me on the Sunday before she died that she was willing for the Lord to take her and dispose of her according to his will. We feel that it was his will to take her to himself and that she is now at rest where there is no more death, no more parting, where all is peace and happiness, there to sing God's praise for ever and ever, where we will see Jesus and be like him, in the prayer of her bereaved husband in hope. Brother Gold and all brethren, pray for me.

Notes for JOSEPH DUPREE:

Obituary courtesy of Billy Yeargin

Appeared in the Zion's Landmark. The Landmark is a publication distributed by the Primitive Baptist Organization. The Obituary was written by Elder Joseph E. Adams who was Eliza Jane's brother.

By request of the wife of Joseph Dupree and his children, I send you the following obituary.

The subject of this notice was born in Johnston County, North Carolina May, 30, 1838, and departed this life January 15, 1905, in the 67th year of his age. He was first married to Eliza Jane Adams, sister of the writer who passed from the scenes of earthly cares and trials some years ago. To this union were born six sons and two daughters, all living and married except two oldest daughters, Nancy Catharine and youngest son Henry Q. Dupree, 21 years old.

Brother Dupree was married the second time in 1901 to sister Sally Johnson, who is still living. He united with the Primitive Baptist church at Sandy Grove, Johnston County, North Carolina Saturday before the third Sunday in June, 1872, of which church he was afterwards appointed Deacon, which office he faithfully filled with credit to himself and satisfaction to the church until 1902, when a difficulty occurred between him and his brother. W. H. Dupree, in regards to a trival matter about their hogs, of which Joseph tried to labor with the brother according to the scriptures but failing to gain him, brought the matter to the church and after much wrangling, the church withdrew from them both after which Joseph made application for restoration making acknowledgments but the church or some of them would not hear, nor forgive him and he suffered a good deal and remained out as long as he lived, but never forsook the church nor the cause he dearly loved-attending the meetings when able. He had been greatly afflicted for many years with cough and lung trouble but suffered patiently til the end came the 3d Sunday evening, 15th of January at 3 p.m. That morning, he shaved himself, changed his clothes but was too feeble to attend the services at Sandy Grove that day. He went out to his dinner and eat as usual, after dinner, wrote a letter and put it in an envelope and his daughter said to him to wait until Quinton, his son came back to back the letter for him and he said he thought he would which were the last words he spoke; sitting in his chair by the fire, his daughter on one side and his wife, Sister Sally, on the other, they heard him make an unusual noise and his daughter looked towards him and saw he was giving away; went behind his chair took hold of him, putting her arms around him and his wife getting to him about the same time, he died in a minute or two without a struggle in his daughters arms. Sister Sally, his wife took some quilts and pillows and they laid him down and his daughter left to carry the news.

He was buried on Tuesday evening after, A great many people were there to witness the last tribute of respect to one whom they esteemed as a husband, father, and friend. The writer made some remarks at the grave and read some appropriate hymns and offered prayer. Thus has passed away from earthly scenes of suffering and afflictions to that upper and better kingdom, one whom I had known well for 30 years as a member and brother beloved and while he had been evil spoken of and hard things said of him, I had unshaken and unbroken confidence, love and fellowship for him as a child of God and that he died in the precious faith of our Lord Jesus Christ. In conclusion, let me say to his dear bereaved and lonely wife and weeping and sorrowing children, weep not as others without hope. May the good Lord bless you with the like precious faith and hope is my prayer.

He married MARY JANE MUNGER 22 Feb 1879 in Polk County, Iowa, daughter of SIMON MUNGER and ELIZABETH WILKINSON. She was born 30 Mar 1856 in Essex County, Ontario, Canada, and died 15 Dec 1944 in Missoula, Montana.

Notes for HENRY BUTLER "HANK" BEAMAN:
E-Mail from Jane Short
(received 1/9/2007)

I found your file on the Rootsweb site on the Langdon's, Stevenson's and Beaman's. It is great. It provided me with quite a bit of information on James Langdon that I didn't have. My husband is a descendant of Isaac and Martha "Patsy" (Langdon) Beaman. However, in your file, I noted you have omitted their youngest son, Henry Butler "Hank" Beaman. He was my husband's great grandfather. He is listed in the Beaman household in the 1850 census of Owen County. He is listed as Butler, however he was later called Hank by family and friends. When his father died, he was sent to live with his sister and her husband.

Hank was born 28 Feb 1848 in Owen County and died 17 April 1897 in Missoula, Montana. He was buried in Missoula Cemetery in a family plot there. He married Mary Jane Munger on 22 Feb 1879 in Polk County, Iowa. She was born 30 March 1856 in Essex Co, Ontario, Canada and died on 15 Dec 1944 again in Missoula. She was the daughter of Simon Peter Munger and his wife, Elizabeth Wilkinson; granddaughter of Sarah Girty and Joseph Munger; great-granddaughter of Simon Girty, Jr and his wife, Catherine Mallott.

Mary Jane was living in Iowa when she and Hank married. They removed to Deadwood, South Dakota Territory where Hank was living and employed. Hank held a variety of occupations while they were there including fireman, deputy sherriff, carpenter, land dealer, etc. He sold the first parcel of land to Bullock and Star (where they opened their store there in Deadwood). He was considered an expert with a gun (became known to the locals as "Shotgun Hank") as well as being an expert horseman. He had become injured in a fire in Lead, S D T. and was put on medication for pain. He later shot a man while under it's influence. After losing the election to become sherriff, he and Mary removed with their children to Montana. They lived in Bozeman, Helena, Livingston and Gardiner before going to Missoula where they finally settled. He died there when Mary was pregnant with their youngest son with the likely cause of death as drug addiction. (I have over 200 newspaper articles detailing their life in Deadwood.)

Their children were:

Clark Beaman b. April 1880 and died as a toddler
Stella Elizabeth b. 21 June 1881 and died 25 April 1975
Melvin b. Oct 1882 and died 7 May 1900
Infant b. May 1883
Cleveland Butler b. 23 May 1884 and died 3 March 1962
Lafayette V b. Dec 1885 and died 15 Nov 1904
David b. 1890 and died 1892
Ruth Irene b. 3 Sept 1892 and died 14 Jan 1935
Ethel May b. 24 June 1894 and died 4 March 1959
Clarence W b. 29 Aug 1897 and died 7 Oct 1983

Stella had a child out of wedlock - Paul Deveres Edwards who died as a young man
She married Howard Short with 1 son
Ruth married Gilbert R Laurie with 1 daughter
Ethel married Percy "Perk" Spencer with no issue
Clarence married #1 Mrs Gladys Pheasant in Ohio. She had two children from a previous marriage which Clarence adopted. He married #2 Fabiola De Arriba in Cuba with no issue.

Melvin, Cleveland and Lafayette are buried near their parents. Ruth is buried at Mt View Cemetery, Sparks, Nevada. Ethel is buried at Golden Gate National Cemetery with her husband. Clarence was buried in Florida. Stella was in Lodi, California at Cherokee Memorial Park. The children that died as infants/toddlers were buried in various parts of Montana, primarily Helena, Livingston or Gardiner.

He was united in marriage to Ines Rosetta Huber, April 6, 1879. To this union were born four children - Albert Lee, who died at the age of three; Herman Roy, of Wheatfield, Ind.; Ella Beatrice Jensen and Lillian May Stalbaum, of Ann Arbor, Mich. There are grandchildren - Wilma Langdon Davis, Washington, D.C.; Ruth Langdon Powell, Indianapolis, Ind., and Captain Thomas A. Jensen, Fort Benning, Ga.

In 1889 Mr. and Mrs. Langdon moved to Wheatfield, Ind., where they have resided for 53 years.

Mr. Langdon has always been very active in civic affairs. He built the first livery and feed stable in the town of Wheatfield and was in partnership with George O. Stembel as the first coal dealers. He supervised and planted the avenues of maple trees along the main streets of Wheatfield, and furnished crews and conveyances to obtain these trees from the banks of the Kankakee river.

He superintended the building of the main streets of the town in 1890 and 1891. He originated the first raying business and continued this line of work for 16 consecutive years. In 1896 Mr. Langdon and Alfred Tilton operated a restaurant jointly on Main Street. He was also sexton of the Wheatfield cemetery for a number of years.

He was baptised in the Methodist Church during Rev. Chas. H. Hickman's first pastorate.

Mr. Langdon was a member of the Wheatfield Town Council for two terms. He was also a charter member of the Knights of Pythias and Modern Woodmen of America.

He was continuously identified with the town's business life until the past year or so, when ill health forced his retirement from active life. He was widely popular and beloved by young and old. His death is mourned by citizens of Jasper County in general.

The funeral services were held at Wheatfield Monday afternoon, with the Rev. Earl Moore of Rensselaer in charge. Burial was made in Wheatfield Cemetery.

He married MARGARET HAYNIE 14 Mar 1894 in Harrison County, Iowa, daughter of WILLIAM HAYNIE and ELLEN RICHEBAUGH. She was born 20 Jul 1875 in Mills County, Iowa, and died 1944 in Harrison County, Iowa.

Notes for WILLIAM EMMETT BEAMAN:
 Emmett BEAMAN - The proprietor of the Glendale Stock and Fruit Farm in Raglan

Township, Harrison County, Iowa, is Emmett Beaman, who has spent his entire life, thus far, in this county. He has a well-improved farm of one hundred and sixty acres and has met with unusual success along every phase of farming which he has attempted. In this day and age, it is necessary that the farmer have diversified interests, so that if one thing fails he will have something else to fall back upon. Mr. Beaman has divided his interests in such a way as to get the maximum results from his farm and is now on the high road to prosperity.

Emmett Beaman, son of Bryant and Dicy Ann (LUCAS) BEAMAN, was born on March 14, 1878, in Harrison County, Iowa. His parents were natives of North Carolina and came to Harrison County about 1864, and located in Morgan Township. They moved to Raglan Township in 1893, where they lived the remainder of their lives.

Emmett Beaman is one of six children born to his parents, and next to the youngest. He received a good, common school education in the schools of Morgan and Raglan townships and during his boyhood days assisted his father with the work on the farm. When he was married, he bought forty acres of land and also rented land from his father. To his original forty, he later added more land until he now has one hundred sixty acres. His farm is well situated in the hills of Raglan township, which are particularly adapted to the growing of all kinds of fruits. He has a large assortment of fruit and berries and derives no small part of his annual income from the sale of fruit. He feeds about 60 head of hogs for the market each year and milks an average of 20 cows all the time. He has found, by experience, that it pays to sell the cream rather than the milk, and the profits from his cows yield a very handsome sum annually.

Emmett Beaman was married on March 14, 1894, to Marguerite HAYNIE, a daughter of William and Ellen (RICHEBAUGH) HAYNIE, who came from Mills County, Iowa, to Harrison County. Mr. Beaman and his wife are the parents of five children, Orval, Everett, Rufus, Blanche and Howard, all of whom are still living at home.

Emmett Beaman and his family are loyal members of the Baptist Church and interested in its welfare. Mr. Beaman is a staunch member of the Democratic party and has always been very active in its success. For several years, he has been a member of the school board of his township and is now president of the board. In all things, which go to make the good American citizen, Mr. Beaman is found lacking in no one particular, consequently is held in high esteem by those who know him.

** From Mark Valsame -

Betsy G. Langdon (wife of Joseph Andrew) - Marriage register lists her as a Johnson and gives her parents as J. N. and Sarah C. Johnson. However, she is listed as being married at J. N. Barbour's residence. I was told by one of her descendants that she was a Barbour, so I believe Johnson is an error on the marriage register. 1880 census confirms that she was the daughter of James N. Barbour and Catherine Barbour.

Notes for ADA MAE QUERY:

Cause of Death: pneumonia following an attack of influenza

BIRTH: Her Obituary states her date of birth as April 24, 1895. This is likely an error, as nephew Arthur C. agrees with the 1901 birth date noted in other records.

Obituary:

According to her April 10, 1919 Obituary in the Owen County Democrat:

"...She was a true and loving daughter. Ada was converted and united with the church at Mt. Pleasant last November a year ago while her name has only been registered a little more than a year on the class book. All her young life has been spent in usefulness and in helping as a loving and dutiful daughter. She was taken sick a little more than two weeks ago, while everything was done that loving hands and friends could do to relieve her suffering and restore her back to health, yet God saw best. We do not understand why, to take her home. Ada loved this beautiful world and was so anxious to live and prayed so earnestly to be spared, but God knew best and she was prepared to meet her loving savior. In the community she will be missed. The church has suffered a great loss, the neighbors speak of Ada as a true Christian and a good girl. In the home her loss is irreparable. She leaves to mourn her loss father, mother, five brothers, many relatives and friends. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Oscar Kaylor at Mt. Pleasant to a large assembly of friends".

News & Observer, The (Raleigh, NC)

Margaret McLemore Lee - 96-year-old curator emeritus of the Johnston County Heritage Center - died early Monday at Johnston Memorial Hospital. In 1967 she went to work part-time at the brand-new Public Library of Johnston County and Smithfield where she began collecting local history and genealogy in what became known as the Johnston County Room. In 2000, the widely acclaimed collection moved into a separate home of its own across the street: today's Johnston County Heritage Center.

Although Mrs. Lee officially retired as a library employee in 1991, she continued her service as a daily volunteer in the Johnston County Room and later at the Heritage Center until a few days before her death.

She was born Sept. 26, 1910 in Johnston County's Cleveland Township as Margaret Elizabeth McLemore, daughter of Dr. George A. McLemore and Nellie Emily Johnson McLemore. Her father was a country doctor who moved the family to Smithfield in 1923. Margaret graduated from Smithfield High School in 1927 and attended North Carolina College for Women (today's UNC-Greensboro).

She married Denton F. Lee in 1941 and worked as bookkeeper for her husband's radio and appliance business in Downtown Smithfield until his death in 1965.

Mrs. Lee joined Oakland Presbyterian Church in Cleveland Township in 1922 and in 1925 moved her membership to Smithfield's First Presbyterian Church where she served as treasurer of the Sunday School from 1947 till 1982, as the church's first woman ordained deacon, and as president of the Women of the Church. She also served as historian for the Women of the Church of Granville Presbytery as well as Women of the Church of the Synod of North Carolina.

During her term as president of the Smithfield Woman's Club in 1963-64, she won national recognition from the General Federation of Women's Clubs and the Sears-Roebuck Foundation for the club's Community Improvement Program. She was the first president, in 1965, of the Historic Hastings House Association, which saved Smithfield's oldest surviving residence. She was organizing regent for the Smith-Bryan Chapter of N.C. Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR). She was also a charter member of the Johnston County Historical Society.

She was a charter member of the Johnston Memorial Hospital Auxiliary and served as a volunteer with Contact Teleministry from 1972 until 1987. She was a member of the first Girl Scout troop organized in Johnston County, in 1923. In 1983 Mrs. Lee was named a "Distinguished Citizen" by the Smithfield-Selma Area Chamber of Commerce.

In 1996 she served as the first Grand Marshal for Cleveland Township's Fourth of July celebration. In 2000 she was inducted into the Order of the Long Leaf Pine, the highest civilian award bestowed by the State of North Carolina. In 2005 she was honored by the Johnston County Heritage Commission as a "Living Legend of Johnston County." That same year she was named "Tar Heel of the Week" by The News & Observer of Raleigh.

Mrs. Lee was preceded in death by a brother, Dr. George A. McLemore of New York City, and a sister, Lucile McLemore Austin of Smithfield, as well as her husband.

She is survived by daughters, Mary Nell Lee Ferguson and husband, Jerry of Cleveland Township, Margaret Ann Lee Stubbs and husband, David of Smithfield; son, Denton F. Lee, Jr. and wife, Jane of Cleveland Township; a brother and sister - Dr. Robert A. McLemore of Springfield, Ohio and Eloise McLemore Grady of Smithfield; six grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

The family will receive friends from 5-8 p.m. Tuesday at the First Presbyterian Church on South Third Street in Smithfield. A graveside service is scheduled for 10 a.m. Wednesday at Oakland Presbyterian Church on Cleveland Road, followed by a memorial service at 11 a.m. Wednesday at First Presbyterian in Smithfield.

The family requests that memorial donations be made to either of the following: the Johnston County Heritage Center, P.O. Box 2709, Smithfield, NC, 27577; First Presbyterian Church, P.O. Box 1159, Smithfield, NC 27577; the Margaret McLemore Lee Endowment, Johnston Community College Foundation, P.O. Box 2350, Smithfield, NC 27577.
